In the upcoming legislative session, State Sen. Irene Aguilar, M.D. plans to propose a bill for a Colorado Health Care Cooperative that will go beyond the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act by covering every Coloradan, while increasing efficiency and taming costs. The Colorado Foundation for Universal Health Care is raising money for an economic analysis and implementation blueprints that will help voters understand the impact of the Colorado Health Care Cooperative. Please donate today or at the event to help us achieve health care for every Coloradan.

RSVPs are encouraged, but not required.

*(Thanks to Ralph Ogden and Anne Wilcox for contributing this office space for our use.)

Bring a cup full of money (be it dimes or dollars) as a housewarming gift and we'll write your name on it. Ever after, you'll be a tangible part of the effort.
